- ✓ Losses, thefts and accidental damage occurring anywhere in the world.

What are my obligations?

- Check your policy terms and conditions to make sure you have the cover you need and expect.
- All steps must be taken to prevent loss or damage and maintain the item in good condition.
- Report any loss or theft to the local police as soon as possible after discovery of the loss or theft.
- Notify Affinity Brokers Ltd as soon as possible after discovery of the loss, theft or damage.
- Provide Affinity Brokers Ltd or their agent with any information, documentation or evidence of the loss that they may reasonably require to consider a claim, including sending any manuals, guarantees and the box for any watch insured for EUR1,000 or over.
- If you have purchased a 3 year insurance policy, then any insured items worth more than £5,000 must be inspected by a jeweller every 2 years to ensure that settings or clasps are in good working order.
- This is not a renewable insurance policy. It is your responsibility to ensure you have alternative insurance arranged on expiry of this insurance.

Failure to meet your obligations could result in a claim being rejected, a reduction in the amount we pay or the cancellation of your insurance.

When and how do I pay?

Payment must be made in full to the jeweller from whom you purchased your jewellery or watch on the day of the purchase.

When does the cover start and end?

Cover starts on date you purchase your jewellery or watch and lasts for 1 or 3 years depending on the length of the insurance you buy. The duration of cover will be confirmed on your sales receipt.

How do I cancel the contract?

You may cancel this insurance within 30 days of purchase and provided you have not made a claim, we will give you a full refund of the premium you have paid. This 30 day period includes the statutory 14 day period of cancellation required by the Financial Conduct Authority.

You may cancel this insurance after 30 days of purchase If you have paid the full annual premium and not made a claim you will be entitled to a pro rata refund.
